DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 19-47 are rejected under 35 USC §103(a) over Pajula et al. in view of Laapotti or Ilmarinen. This rejection is set forth in the prior Office action mailed on April 25, 2008.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed on July 17, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that the combination of the references would be contrary to the teachings of Pajula et al.¹ because they teach a high speed process and dewatering from the two sides would slow down the process. The examiner respectfully disagrees, because one of ordinary skill in the art would see the advantages and disadvantages of the proposed combination. In the papermaking art the skilled in the art always works with trade-offs, i.e., better formation, lower speed for this particular case, and would elect the desired option for that particular, product or time and economical reasons. However, the technical combination of the references as suggested in the previous art would be obvious and feasible to one of ordinary skill in the art. The examiner recognizes that obviousness can only be established by combining or modifying the teachings of the prior art to produce the claimed invention where there is some teaching, suggestion, or motivation to do so found either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 5 USPQ2d 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1988) and In re Jones, 958 F.2d 347, 21 USPQ2d 1941 (Fed. Cir. 1992).

“The test for obviousness is not whether the features of a secondary reference may be bodily incorporated into the structure of the primary reference.... Rather, the test is what the combined teachings of those references would have suggested to those of ordinary skill in the art.” In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 425, 208 USPQ 871, 881 (CCPA 1981). See also In re Sneed, 710 F.2d 1544, 1550, 218 USPQ 385, 389 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (“[I]t is not necessary that the inventions of the references be physically combinable to render obvious the invention under review.”); and In re Nievelt, 482 F.2d 965, 179 USPQ 224, 226 (CCPA 1973) (“Combining the teachings of references does not involve an ability to combine their specific structures.”).

4. Applicant’s arguments, see remarks, filed July 17, 2008, with respect to the rejection under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) in view of FI 109481 B, have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 19-47 under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) has been withdrawn.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

¹ The examiner interprets “et al.” as “and others” and therefore, it refers to a plurality, and subsequently uses the
